

REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES

JOINT MEMORANDUM CIRCULAR NO. 001.2020

GUIDELINES FOR THE AVAILMENT OF THE SMALL BUSINESS WAGE SUBSIDY MEASURE

Consistent with the declared policy in Section 3 of Republic Act (RA) No. 11469, otherwise known as the “Bayanihan to Heal As One Act”, to urgently respond to the socioeconomic impact of the Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) pandemic that has greatly affected the Philippines and has caused, and is continuing to cause, the loss of lives and significant disruption to the economy, the State recognizes the urgent need to undertake programs for recovery and rehabilitation, including providing for safety nets to all affected sectors, and partner with the private sector and other stakeholders to deliver these measures and programs quickly and efficiently.

On April 14, 2020, pursuant to the provisions of RA No. 11469 and upon recommendation the Department of Finance (DOF), along with the Social Security System (SSS) and the Bureau of Internal Revenue (BIR), the President of the Philippines approved the “Small Business Wage Subsidy” measure (SBWS). The SBWS, to be publicly known as the “Small Business Wage Subsidy Program,” aims to provide a wage subsidy to complement the social amelioration programs under the “Bayanihan to Heal as One Act” by providing targeted support to formal sector employers and their employees.

As approved by the President of the Philippines, and by virtue of the authority granted, the DOF, together with the BIR and the SSS, based on the authorities vested in them by pertinent laws, hereby issues the following guidelines:

I. COVERAGE AND SCOPE

The SBWS covers small business employers and their eligible employees, employed as of March 1, 2020, affected by the enhanced community quarantine or other forms of quarantine, imposed in Luzon and other parts of the country to address the COVID-19 public health emergency. A wage subsidy of Five thousand pesos (P5,000) to Eight thousand pesos (P8,000) (largely based on the regional minimum wage) shall be given in two (2) tranches: Provided, That, employees who have received benefits from the Department of Labor and Employment’s (DOLE) COVID-19 Adjustment Measures Program (CAMP) and other similar programs may be eligible under the SBWS, but the wage subsidy for the second tranche under the SBWS shall be net of any amount received from the said programs and subject to conditions provided in this Circular.

II. DEFINITION OF TERMS

For purposes of this Circular, the following terms are defined as follows:

1. Employees refer to persons employed by an employer, whether regular, probationary, regular seasonal, project-based, or fixed-term, in accordance with the provisions of Presidential Decree (PD) No. 442 otherwise known as the "Labor Code of the Philippines," as amended and renumbered.

5. Small businesses refer to a sole proprietorship, or a corporation or partnership not under the jurisdiction of the BIR Large Taxpayers Service.

III. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA FOR EMPLOYERS

Eligible employers are small business employers belonging to an industry classified as Non-essential or Quasi-essential in view of the enhanced community quarantine and other forms thereof, imposed in Luzon and other parts of the country, registered in the BIR and have complied with tax obligations in the past three years, up to January 2020, and also registered in the SSS and have paid SSS contributions in the past three years, up to January 2020.

IV. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA FOR EMPLOYEES

Eligible employees are those employed by an eligible small business employer under Item III herein as of March 1, 2020, and has been prevented from performing work for at least two weeks, due to suspension of work, temporary closure, or the adoption of flexible work arrangement by his employer, in view of the enhanced community quarantine and other forms thereof, imposed in Luzon and other parts of the country.

The following employees are disqualified from availing of the SBWS:

1. Employees working from home or part of the skeleton force;
2. Employees on leave for the entire duration of the enhanced community quarantine and other forms thereof, whether with or without pay; and
3. Employees who are recipients of SSS unemployment benefits and/or have unsettled or in-process SSS final claims.

Employees who have received a subsidy from the DOLE's CAMP and other similar programs may be eligible for the SBWS, but the wage subsidy for the second tranche under the SBWS shall be net of any amount received under the said programs.

The employer, upon application with the SSS, shall certify that the employee has met all the eligibility requirements and none of the disqualifications.

V. ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS FOR THE GRANT

1. The small business employer must maintain the employment status of all employee beneficiaries before the enhanced community quarantine and other forms thereof and throughout the SBWS period: Provided, that non-compliance with this condition shall result in the employer refunding to the government the wage subsidy amount; and
2. Employee beneficiaries cannot resign during the period of enhanced community quarantine and other forms thereof, imposed in Luzon and other parts of the country: Provided, that non-compliance with this condition shall result in the employee refunding to the government the wage subsidy amount.

VI. GENERAL GUIDELINES

1. The BIR shall pre-qualify small business employers based on the eligibility requirements in Item III (Eligibility Criteria for Employers) above, based on the BIR registration and taxpayer compliance databases, in consultation with the DOF and the SSS. For this purpose, the BIR shall notify pre-qualified small business employers through the BIR website (www.bir.gov.ph).
2. The pre-qualification conducted by the BIR shall not immediately entitle the small business employers and their employees to the SBWS.
3. The pre-qualified small-business employers shall apply for the SBWS through the "My.SSS", accessible in the SSS website (www.sss.gov.ph), unless notified otherwise by SSS through email. In which case, the pre-qualified small business employer shall apply by submitting the documentary requirements to sbwscertifications@sss.gov.ph.

Applications shall be accepted until May 8, 2020. Applications submitted manually or through other means not sanctioned shall not be entertained.

4. The small business employers shall include in their application the eligible employees based on Item IV (Eligibility Criteria for Employees) above. The small business employers shall certify to the truthfulness, accuracy and completeness of the information provided. Employers who misrepresent in their applications the fact of payment of wages or other material facts relevant to the eligibility of their employees, shall be liable for refunding the government the amount of the wage subsidy granted.
5. The SSS shall process and determine the eligibility of the employers based on Item III (Eligibility Criteria for Employers) and the employees based on Item IV (Eligibility Criteria for Employees) above, in consultation with the DOF and the BIR.
6. The preferred mode of wage subsidy payout is through direct deposit to employee's bank account. Thus:
 - a. For employees with no SSS-registered bank accounts: the employee must first enroll his/her bank account or e-wallet details with SSS via the member My.SSS account. Employers will make a reasonable effort to help employees open bank or e-wallet accounts.
 - b. For employees with no existing bank account or e-wallet account: wage subsidy can be done through cash pick up arrangement in remittance transfer companies through an SSS authorized government depository bank. In order to avail of this option, the employee must first enroll his/her mobile number with SSS via the member My.SSS account.
 - c. For employees with SSS-registered bank accounts, no further action is required.

7. The SBWS shall be paid out in two-tranches. The first tranche (representing the first month) shall be paid out from April 29 to May 15, 2020, while the second tranche (representing the second month) shall be paid out from May 16 to 31, 2020: Provided, that employees who have received benefits from the DOLE's CAMP and other similar programs may be eligible under SBWS but the wage subsidy for the second tranche under the SBWS shall be net of any amount received under the said programs.
8. Other sectors not enumerated in the definition under this Circular may also be covered under the SBWS, upon recommendation of the SBWS Program Task Force and approval by the Secretary of Finance.
9. Pursuant to Section 4(z) RA No. 11469, the wage subsidy given to employees under the SBWS shall not be considered as part of the gross income and therefore not subject to income tax.

VII. WAGE SUBSIDY

Eligible employees shall be given a wage subsidy for two months under the following schedule and subject to the conditions under this Circular:

Region	Monthly wage subsidy per worker (pesos)	Region	Monthly wage subsidy per worker (pesos)
NCR	8,000	VII	6,000
CAR	5,500	VIII	5,000
I	5,500	IX	5,000
